Heard APP.

The Petitioner is seeking extension of Furlough. The Furlough leave of Petitioner of two weeks has expired and the Petitioner has already surrendered. In so far as the reason given for extension is concerned, we have gone through the Medical Certificate annexed to the Petition. The doctor has merely advised ovasion Cystectomy Operation. It would be proper for the prisoner to inform his wife to get herself examined in J. J. hospital and get a certificate as to whether operation is a must. As we do not find it to be safe to rely on the certificate on seeing the earlier part of the certificate. Further, there is no material given alongwith the Medical Certificate to show what sort of examination was conducted before issuing the said certificate.

The Petition being infructuous, is dismissed.

The Registrar to communicate the order to the Petitioner through the Superintendent of Jail, where the petitioner is undergoing imprisonment.
